MAKE THE SMART MOVE

Suzuki Aerio

Somehow, somewhere, more personality, more power, a get-real attitude and a whole lot more fun has crept into the universe. And it's out there just for the taking. Will the entire population figure this out? Who cares? The new 155-hp Aerio. Bring it on.

Performance

More power to you.

The 2.3-liter, 16-valve, DOHC engine in the Aerio develops 155 hp. That's more than enough to keep your right foot happy.

Styling that will spoil you.

A rear spoiler with an integrated brake light gives the Aerio a sporty look, which is exactly as it should be.

Lighter is better.

The standard aluminum-alloy wheels on the LX and SX models not only enhance the look of the car, they also help performance by reducing weight.

Rev it up.

One quick glance is all it takes with these new analog gauges. Plus, the slick chrome rings really add to that performance touch.

Comfort

Keep your hands on the wheel.

Focus on the drive at hand. The Aerio comes standard with a tilt steering wheel with integrated-audio controls.

Rest up.

The Aerio driver's seat comes with an armrest for added comfort, so your right arm can take an occasional break on those long drives.

The key to convenience.

With remote keyless entry, you can lock or unlock the Aerio with ease. For safety, it also has a Panic-mode button. (Standard on LX and SX)

In-dash CD changer.

Aerio is equipped with a standard CD player with 7 speakers, including subwoofer. The LX and SX models add a 6-disc in-dash CD changer.

Convenience

A car that hauls.

Whether you have to carry a little or a lot, the Aerio will make it easy. Convenient split-folding rear seatbacks allow you to add more cargo space when you need it.

Below-deck storage.

Not only can you store items in the cargo area of the SX, you can also store them underneath it. Lift the cargo floor panel and you're rewarded with a compartmentalized storage space.

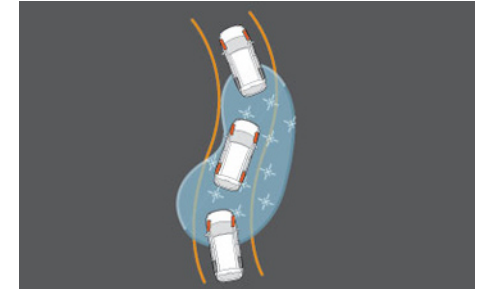

Power up.

Everyone has a cell phone these days. So if it—or any other electrical device you have—needs to stay charged, the Aerio comes with a 12-volt auxiliary power outlet.

Power everything.

Aerio features a long list of amenities, including standard power windows, mirrors and door locks.

Safety

The safety of all-wheel drive.

During normal driving, power is delivered to the front wheels. Should the front wheels begin to slip, the QuadGrip™ All-wheel-drive System transfers some power to the rear wheels, providing an optimum 50/50 front-rear power distribution for improved traction and handling. (Optional on LX and SX)

Put on the brakes.

The optional antilock braking system (ABS) provides you with improved braking in slippery conditions, while enhancing your ability to avoid an obstacle or hazard.

Peace of mind is a nice thing.

This year's Aerio comes with front-side airbags as standard equipment, as well as an advanced front-passenger-seat airbag with a weight-sensing feature. It deactivates automatically when the passenger weighs less than 65 lb.
